The Stony Point History Roundtable: Doodletown: Mountain Memories

Oscar Herbert Farm, Doodletown (1950); Nyack Library Local History Room Collection

Sunday, October 24, 2010 • 2pm

The Rho Stony Point Community Center
Clubhouse Lane and Patriot Hills Drive; Stony Point, NY

Guest Speaker:

Elizabeth “Perk” Stalter, author of “Doodletown: Hiking Through History in a Vanished Hamlet on the Hudson” and member of the Historical Society of the Palisades Interstate Park Region, will trace the hamlet’s early history from the 1760s and share her personal memories of Doodletown – an isolated, but once thriving community that was overtaken by the Palisades Park Commission for planned expansion of winter recreation facilities at Bear Mountain State Park.
